the BUSINESS SITUATION

PROFITS from current production—profits before tax with inventory valuation adjustment (IVA) and capital consumption adjustment (CCAdj)—increased $9 billion in the third quarter, following a $3½ billion decline in the second.

Domestic profits of nonfinancial corporations increased $7 billion, following a $½ billion increase, reflecting higher real gross corporate product and higher profits per unit. With respect to the higher unit profits, an increase in unit price more than offset increases in unit labor and non-labor costs.

Domestic profits of financial corporations changed little—up $½ billion—following a $2 billion increase, and profits from the rest of the world rebounded $2 billion, following a $5½ billion decline.

Profits before tax.—As explained in the following section, profits before tax (PBT) and a number of other profits-related estimates have been adjusted for the first three quarters of 1986 to reflect retroactive provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986; the adjusted figures are used in this discussion.

PBT increased $12½ billion in the third quarter, following an increase of $5 billion in the second. The larger third-quarter increase reflected a $7½ billion swing in profits from the rest of the world; PBT of domestic corporations increased about $10½ billion in both quarters.

The difference between the $12½ billion increase in PBT and the $9 billion increase in profits from current production is primarily due to the IVA, which declined $4½ billion; the CCAdj increased $½ billion. These adjustments convert depreciation and inventories reported by business to those used by BEA in the estimation of profits from current production. The decline in the IVA, from $10½ billion to $6 billion, reflected smaller decreases in inventory prices than in the second quarter.

Profits with IVA but without CCAdj.—The quarterly measure of profits available by industry increased $8 billion, following a decline of $½ billion. Profits of domestic non-financial corporations increased $6½ billion, as increased trade profits more than offset a decline in manufacturing profits; in the second quarter, when domestic profits of non-financial corporations had increased $3½ billion, the opposite occurred: increased manufacturing profits more than offset lower trade profits.

Both retail and wholesale trade contributed to the increase in trade profits in the third quarter. Profits of retailers increased moderately after a second-quarter decline; retailers' profits have seesawed in this fashion—up one quarter and down the next—for more than a year. Profits of wholesalers increased sharply, rebounding to year-earlier levels after several quarters of weakness. The increase reflected the first substantial increase in sales in a number of quarters.

In manufacturing, sizable declines were widespread among durables producers, although the largest of the manufacturing declines was in petroleum, a nondurable; a number of corporations in this industry engage in the extraction of crude oil as well as in refining, and their profits were damped by lower prices and sluggish production of crude.

Rest-of-the-world profits, which are expressed on a net (i.e., inflows minus outflows) basis, increased $2 billion, following a $5½ billion decline, as outflows declined more than inflows.

- Input-Output Accounts. The 1981 annual input-output tables will be presented in the January issue of the SURVEY.
- Tax Reform Act of 1986. An analysis of major provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 and their impact on Federal sector receipts on a national income and product accounting basis will appear in an upcoming issue of the SURVEY.

Retroactive Effects of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 on the National Income and Product Accounts Estimates

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 was signed into law on October 22, 1986. Most provisions of the act become effective January 1, 1987 and will be discussed in an upcoming issue of the SURVEY OF CURRENT BUSINESS. However, certain capital cost provisions are retroactive to January 1, 1986: (1) The investment tax credit is repealed for assets placed in service in 1986, except for certain assets covered by transition rules; (2) the basis for depreciation is restored to full cost from the 95 percent of cost required with the use of the investment tax credit under prior law, except for certain assets covered by transition rules, for which the basis for depreciation is reduced from 95 to 90 percent; and (3) some assets not covered by transition rules and placed in service during the last five months of 1986 are made eligible for accelerated (double-declining balance) depreciation.

National income and product (NIPA) estimates for the first three quarters of 1986 have been adjusted to reflect the retroactive provisions. The retroactive provisions affect the NIPA measures of national income without capital consumption adjustment, corporate profits, nonfarm proprietors' income, and capital consumption allowances (all without capital consumption adjustment), cash flow, corporate profits tax liability, and the capital consumption adjustment. The measures are in the following NIPA tables: 1.9, 1.14, 1.16, 3.2, 3.3, 5.1, 6.3B, 6.18B, and 7.18.

The adjustments for retroactive provisions are based on preliminary estimates for the year 1986 provided by the Treasury Department. Previously published estimates for the first three quarters of 1986 were based on prior tax laws.

The adjustments are summarized in table 1 for the year 1986 and for the four quarters.

- The adjustments increase capital consumption allowances by $5.2 billion for the year, and decrease income by the same amount (nonfarm proprietors' income by $0.8 billion and corporate profits by $4.4 billion). The restoration of the depreciation basis to full cost accounts for $1.1 billion, and the acceleration of depreciation accounts for $4.1 billion.

- The adjustments increase corporate tax liability by $5.3 billion in 1986. The repeal of the investment tax credit increases profits tax liability by $7.6 billion, and the restoration of the depreciation basis to full cost and the acceleration of depreciation decrease liability by $0.4 and $1.8 billion, respectively.

- The adjustments decrease profits after tax by $9.8 billion.

No adjustments are required for other NIPA components. Because the effects of the retroactive provisions on corporate profits, nonfarm proprietors' income, and capital consumption allowances are offset in the NIPA's in their capital consumption adjustments, the corresponding estimates with capital consumption adjustment are not affected. NIPA estimates of farm proprietors' income, which are not developed from tax return data, and estimates of rental income of persons, which are only minimally based on such data, are also not affected. Because personal tax and nontax payments are recorded in the NIPA's on a cash basis, rather than a liability basis, they are not affected retroactively. The retroactive provisions do not affect national income, personal income, disposable personal income, personal saving, gross corporate product, or GNP.

1. The inventory valuation adjustment (IVA) shown in this table differs from the IVA that adjusts business incomes. The IVA in this table reflects the mix of methods (first-in, first-out; last-in, first-out; etc.) underlying book value inventories derived primarily from Census Bureau statistics. This mix differs from that underlying business income derived primarily from Internal Revenue Service statistics. Prior to 1973, the two IVA's are the same because information required for separate estimates is not available.

1. Inventories are as of the end of the quarter. The quarter-to-quarter change in inventories calculated from current-dollar inventories in this table is not the current-dollar change in business inventories (CBI) component of GNP. The former is the difference between two inventory stocks, each valued at their respective end-of-quarter prices. The latter is the change in the physical volume of inventories valued at average prices of the quarter. In addition, changes calculated from this table are at quarterly rates, whereas CBI is stated at annual rates.

2. Quarterly totals at monthly rates. Business final sales equals final sales less gross product of households and institutions, government, and rest of the world, and includes a small amount of final sales by farms.

Plant and Equipment Expenditures:

- Quarters of 1986
- First and Second Quarters of 1987
- Year 1987

BUSINESS plans to spend $384.2 billion for new plant and equipment (P&E) in 1987, 0.9 percent more than in 1986, according to the BEA survey conducted in October and November (tables 1 and 2, and chart 1).¹ The latest estimate for 1986 spending is $380.7 billion, 1.7 percent less than in 1985; this estimate is little changed from the previous estimate, reported in September for the survey conducted in July and August.²

Real spending—capital spending adjusted to remove price changes—is estimated to increase 0.2 percent in 1987. The latest estimate of real spending for 1986 indicates a decline of 2.6 percent from 1985 (tables 2 and 3). Estimates of real spending are calculated from survey data on current-dollar spending and from estimated capital goods price deflators developed

1. Surveyed quarterly.
2. Includes industries not shown separately.

1. The survey covers expenditures both for new facilities and for expansion or replacement of existing facilities that are chargeable to fixed asset accounts and for which depreciation or amortization accounts are ordinarily maintained. The survey excludes expenditures for land and mineral rights; maintenance and repair; used plant and equipment, including that purchased or acquired through mergers or acquisitions; assets located in foreign countries; residential structures; and a few other items.

The estimates presented are universe totals of domestic P&E expenditures for all industries surveyed quarterly, which account for nearly 90 percent of capital spending by U.S. nonfarm business. Sample data are compiled from reports on a company basis, not from separate reports for plants or establishments. A company's capital expenditures are assigned to a single industry in accordance with the industry classification of the company's principal product or service.

P&E expenditures differ from nonresidential fixed investment, which is a component of GNP, in type of detail, data sources, coverage, and timing. For further information, see pages 24-25 of the February 1985 SURVEY OF CURRENT BUSINESS.

2. The estimates of planned spending have been adjusted for systematic reporting biases. The bias adjustments are calculated by industry for each planning horizon. For a given time period, the bias-adjustment factor is the median of the ratios of planned to actual expenditures for that time period in the preceding 8 years. Before adjustments, 1986 planned spending was $377.89 billion for "all industries," $145.42 billion for manufacturing, and $232.47 billion for nonmanufacturing industries surveyed quarterly; 1987 planned spending was $381.85 billion for "all industries," $147.75 billion for manufacturing, and $234.10 for nonmanufacturing industries surveyed quarterly.

by BEA.³ The capital goods deflator for "all industries" is projected by BEA to increase 0.7 percent in 1987, following a 1.0-percent increase in 1986; the deflator increased 0.5 percent in 1985.

Current-dollar spending in the third quarter of 1986 declined 0.4 percent, to an annual rate of $374.5 billion, following a 0.5-percent decline in the second; third-quarter spending was 1.6 percent lower than anticipated in the previous survey. Plans reported in the latest survey indicate a 5.3-percent increase in the fourth quarter, a 1.9-percent decline in the first quarter of 1987, and a 1.7-percent increase in the second.

Real spending declined 1.1 percent in the third quarter of 1986, following a 0.4-percent decline in the second. Estimates indicate a 5.6-percent increase in the fourth quarter, a 2.3-percent decline in the first quarter of 1987, and a 1.6-percent increase in the second.

Although third-quarter capital spending reported in the latest survey

3. Specifically, the current-dollar figures reported by survey respondents are adjusted using implicit price deflators derived from unpublished detailed national income and product account estimates of current- and constant-dollar nonresidential fixed investment (adjusted to a P&E basis). To estimate planned real spending, the implicit price deflator for each industry is projected using its growth rate over the latest four quarters for which it is available.

1. Estimates are based on planned capital expenditures reported by business in October and November 1986. The planned expenditures are adjusted for systematic biases in reporting. The adjustment procedures are described in the February 1985 SURVEY OF CURRENT BUSINESS. Before bias adjustment, current-dollar plans for 1986 were $377.89 billion for "all industries," $145.42 billion for manufacturing, and $232.47 billion for nonmanufacturing industries surveyed quarterly; and current-dollar plans for 1987 were $381.85 billion for "all industries," $147.75 billion for manufacturing, and $234.10 billion for nonmanufacturing industries surveyed quarterly.

4. Consists of lumber, furniture, instruments, and miscellaneous.

was revised down from plans reported in the previous survey, 1986 spending plans changed little because fourth-quarter plans were revised up. It should be noted, however, that actual spending in each of the first three quarters of 1986 has been lower than plans reported 3 months earlier, raising the possibility that fourth-quarter plans may not be fully realized.

Manufacturing Programs

Manufacturing industries plan current-dollar spending of $141.9 billion in 1987, 2.0 percent less than in 1986; the latest estimate of spending for 1986 indicates a decline of 5.7 percent from 1985. Durable and nondurable goods industries both plan declines in 1987, of 0.6 percent and 3.2 percent, respectively. In durables, the largest declines are planned in aircraft, 9.1 percent; motor vehicles, 8.5 percent; and machinery (except electrical), 7.0 percent. A large increase—32.7 percent—is planned in blast furnaces-steel works; smaller increases are planned in electrical machinery and nonferrous metals. In nondurables, the largest decline—14.2 percent—is planned in petroleum. Smaller declines are planned in rubber, paper, and chemicals. A sizable increase—12.1 percent—is planned in “other nondurables;” smaller increases are planned in textiles and food-beverage.

Current-dollar spending in manufacturing declined 1.7 percent in the third quarter of 1986, following a 1.6-percent decline in the second. Manufacturers plan a 10.8-percent increase in the fourth quarter, an 8.4-percent decline in the first quarter of 1987, and a 2.8-percent increase in the second.

Real spending by manufacturers is estimated to decline 2.6 percent in 1987—0.5 percent in durables and 4.4 percent in nondurables. The latest estimate of real spending in manufacturing for 1986 indicates a decline of 6.8 percent from 1985.

Nonmanufacturing Programs

Nonmanufacturing industries plan spending of $242.3 billion in 1987, 2.7 percent more than in 1986; the latest estimate of spending for 1986 indicates an increase of 1.0 percent from 1985. Increases in 1987 are planned in “other transportation,” 9.0 percent; “commercial and other,” 5.9 percent; gas utilities, 5.1 percent; and air transportation, 3.4 percent; these increases more than offset planned declines in mining, 10.1 percent; electric utilities, 8.1 percent; and railroads, 7.7 percent.

Current-dollar spending in nonmanufacturing increased 0.5 percent in the third quarter of 1986, following a 0.1-percent increase in the second. Nonmanufacturing industries plan a 2.1-percent increase in the fourth quarter, a 2.3-percent increase in the first quarter of 1987, and a 1.0-percent increase in the second.

Real spending by nonmanufacturing industries is estimated to increase 2.1 percent in 1987; the latest estimate of spending for 1986 indicates an increase of 0.3 percent from 1985. An estimated increase in 1987 in “commercial and other,” 5.7 percent, more than offsets estimated declines in mining, 12.9 percent; public utilities, 5.3 percent; and transportation, 0.5 percent.

Plant and Equipment Expenditures by Business for Pollution Abatement, 1985 and 1986

U.S. nonfarm business spent $8.6 billion in 1985 for new plant and equipment to abate air and water pollution and to dispose of solid waste, an increase of 2.0 percent from the 1984 level (table 1). According to business plans, spending will increase 1.2 percent in 1986—bringing total pollution abatement (PA) capital expenditures to $8.7 billion. These results are based on a BEA survey conducted early in 1986.¹

1. Pollution abatement is the purposeful reduction or elimination of emissions of pollutants. Pollutants are substances and other emissions that are potentially harmful and degrade the quality of air or water Spending for PA capital had peaked at $9.3 billion in 1981 and declined to $7.8 billion by 1983 before beginning to increase in 1984. The 2.0-percent shared by all. Solid waste disposal refers to means acceptable to Federal, State, and local authorities.

The survey results are universe estimates for U.S. nonfarm business for PA plant and equipment, excluding spending for emission abatement devices on cars and trucks. The estimates are based on sample data from companies, each of which is assigned to a single industry corresponding to the industry classification of the company's principal product. For further information about the survey methodology and for industry detail for spending prior to 1984, see "Plant and Equipment Expenditures by Business for Pollution Abatement: Revised Estimates for 1973-83 and Estimates for 1984." SURVEY OF CURRENT BUSINESS 66 (February 1986).

increase in PA capital spending in 1985 was one-fourth of the 1984 increase. The deceleration reflects the slowing of total capital spending, from an increase of 16.2 percent in 1984 to an increase of 8.3 percent in 1985. The pattern of spending was probably not affected by changes in legislative and administrative requirements for PA in 1984 and 1985.

Real spending for PA capital—spending adjusted for price change—was unchanged in 1985, compared with a 4.2-percent increase in 1984 (table 2). If current-dollar spending reaches the planned 1986 level, a real decrease of 2.5 percent is indicated for 1986. Real spending had peaked in 1975 and decreased in all but one year until the 1984 increase. Prices for PA capital increased 2.2 percent in 1985, compared with 3.6 percent in 1984.² Preliminary estimates indicate that prices will increase in 1986 by 3.8 percent.

The share of total new plant and equipment expenditures accounted for by PA decreased from 2.1 percent in 1984 to 2.0 percent in 1985, the lowest level since the first survey was conducted in 1973 (chart 2). This decline continues the trend that started a decade earlier after the share peaked at 4.2 percent. According to planned spending estimates, the ratio of PA spending to total capital spending will decrease slightly in 1986.

Media detail.—Of the $8.6 billion spent for PA capital in 1985, about $4.1 billion was allocated for air PA, $3.3 billion for water PA, and $1.2 billion for solid waste disposal. Spending for air PA capital decreased 3.3 percent in 1985, and spending for water PA capital increased 5.1 percent. Solid waste disposal capital increased at a substantial rate, 14.4 percent.

Estimates of planned spending for 1986 show another strong increase in solid waste disposal, 9.2 percent. Planned spending for air PA capital decreased 1.7 percent, and that for water PA capital increased 1.5 percent.

2. Price indexes generally applicable to PA plant and equipment are used to derive implicit price deflators. Year-to-year changes in the PA implicit price deflators reflect changes in prices and in the composition of pollution abatement capital. Past changes have primarily reflected price changes; shifts in composition have had little effect.

Concern about control of hazardous wastes appears to be stimulating capital spending for solid waste disposal. The share of PA capital spending accounted for by solid waste disposal fluctuated during 1973-76 and then increased each year, except 1982. At 5.7 percent, the share was smallest in 1975, and it reached 13.8 percent in 1985. Estimates of planned PA capital spending for 1986 indicate a 14.9-percent share for solid waste disposal.

Real spending for air PA capital decreased 4.4 percent in 1985, but that for water PA and for solid waste disposal increased 1.4 percent and 13.7 percent, respectively. For air PA, real spending has declined every year since 1979, except in 1984 when it increased slightly. Preliminary estimates for 1986 indicate decreases of 4.8 percent and 2.7 percent in real spending for air PA and water PA, respectively, and an increase of 6.5 percent in real spending for disposal of solid waste.

For air and water PA, reduction in emissions of pollutants is either by end-of-line methods or changes-in-production-process methods (table 3). End-of-line methods treat pollutants after they are generated, e.g., use of a NOTE.—Frederick J. Dreiling planned and coordinated the survey and the estimation process. Frederick G. Kappler assisted with the editing of company reports, and Frederick J. Dreiling edited and evaluated the sample and prepared the current-dollar estimates. Nikolaos A. Stergioulas converted the estimates from current dollars to constant (1982) dollars. Colin B. Brown, Christopher W. Cavaney, and Maurice A. Schlak provided computer programming and services. Brenda G. Davis provided secretarial services.

settling pond for waste particles suspended in water. Changes-in-production-process methods are preventive in that they reduce the generation of pollutants during production, e.g., use of a water recirculation system for process cooling, instead of a once-through system, for excess heat. The share of air and water PA capital spending for end-of-line methods has fluctuated since 1973. It was smallest in 1982 (77.5 percent) and largest in 1984 (83.4 percent). The share has remained high.

Industry detail.—Manufacturing industries spent $5.1 billion for PA capital in 1985, $0.6 billion (13.2 percent) more than in 1984. Durable goods industries increased spending $0.4 billion (23.4 percent), reflecting large increases by the blast furnaces and motor vehicles industries (chart 3). Nondurable goods industries increased spending $0.2 billion (6.7 percent), reflecting an increase in spending by the chemicals industry after 3 consecutive years of declines.

Nonmanufacturing industries spent $3.5 billion for PA capital in 1985; a $0.4 billion (11.0 percent) decrease largely offset the increase in manufacturing. Almost all this decrease was accounted for by electric utilities, for which PA capital spending dropped to the lowest level since 1978. Reduced PA capital spending by electric utilities is consistent with slowing increases in demand for electricity—which affects the building of new plants that must meet new source performance standards for PA.

Six industries accounted for three-quarters of PA capital spending in 1985: Electric utilities, petroleum, chemicals, blast furnaces, paper, and motor vehicles (chart 4). The first two of these industries accounted for almost one-half of the spending.

For 1986, a planned increase of $0.2 billion for manufacturing was partly offset by a decrease by nonmanufacturing for a net increase of $0.1 billion. Within manufacturing, a planned increase by nondurable goods industries ($0.4 billion) was partly offset by a planned decrease ($0.1 billion) by durable goods industries. The planned decrease by durable goods industries is accounted for by blast furnaces. The planned increase by nondurable goods industries is largely accounted for by chemicals ($0.2 billion) and petroleum ($0.1 billion). It is likely that actual increases will be smaller, particularly for petroleum. Weakness in sales and profits for petroleum related to recent price declines will make realization of 1986 plans difficult.³

Within nonmanufacturing, electric utilities planned a $0.2 billion decrease. With this decrease, the electric utility share of total PA capital spending is 30.2 percent, down from 38.2 percent in 1982. The downtrend in PA capital spending in electric utilities may continue, in line with industry projections indicating a substantial drop in new plant additions during the next decade. On the other hand, congressional interest in acid rain reduction, as evidenced by current acid rain bills, may result in additional PA requirements for electric utilities. For example, a recent proposal calls for expanded application of 1978 regulations on sulfur dioxide emissions to include electric plants built prior to 1977, which would add to PA capital spending.

3. Revisions of total capital spending plans during 1986 are discussed in Eugene P. Seskin and David F. Sullivan, "Plant and Equipment Expenditures for the Four Quarters of 1986," SURVEY 66 (September 1986) and "Plant and Equipment Expenditures, Quarters of 1986, First and Second Quarters of 1987, and Year 1987," SURVEY 66 (December 1986). Industries that scaled back 1986 total capital spending plans during the year—e.g., petroleum—in the face of substantial petroleum price declines may have scaled back PA capital spending at least proportionately.

U.S. International Transactions, Third Quarter 1986

THE U.S. current-account deficit increased to $36.3 billion in the third quarter from $34.4 billion in the second. The increase reflected a rise in the merchandise trade deficit; net receipts for services increased slightly.

Capital inflows remained strong. Those of foreign official agencies reflected substantial intervention purchases of dollars in exchange markets. Those of private foreigners reflected unusually large net inflows to U.S. banks, mostly related to inter-bank transactions, and continued sizable purchases of U.S. securities, mostly corporate bonds and stocks.

The statistical discrepancy (errors and omissions in recorded transactions) shifted to a net outflow of $3.8 billion from a net inflow of $12.4 billion.

U.S. dollar in exchange markets

The U.S. dollar depreciated 3 percent in the third quarter on a trade-weighted quarterly average basis against the currencies of 22 OECD countries and 5 percent against the currencies of 10 industrial countries (table C; chart 5).

Depreciation of the dollar against most major European currencies accelerated after slowing in the second quarter, and depreciation against the Japanese yen continued at about the same pace as in the second quarter. The lowering of the U.S. discount rate in July and August and the decline in U.S. short-term interest rates, while most key short-term foreign rates were virtually unchanged, were contributing factors. Some foreign monetary authorities made substantial dollar purchases in exchange markets to limit appreciation of their currencies against the dollar. The dollar depreciated 7 percent against the German mark, 5-7 percent against the other European Monetary System currencies, 8 percent against the Japanese yen, and 10 percent against the Swiss franc.

In contrast, the dollar was unchanged against the Canadian dollar and appreciated 2 percent against the British pound. Slow growth in the British economy and a larger trade deficit, mostly the results of the drop in petroleum prices earlier this year, weakened the pound against the dollar and some European currencies, especially the German mark and the Swiss franc. The weakening of the pound may have contributed to appreciation of other major currencies against the dollar as investors shifted their preferences to German marks, Swiss francs, and Japanese yen.

The dollar remained virtually unchanged against the currencies of the newly industrialized countries in Asia—Korea, Taiwan, Singapore, and Hong Kong. The official exchange rate of the Mexican peso was lowered 27 percent, partly the result of continued weakness in petroleum prices.

Merchandise trade

The merchandise trade deficit was $37.7 billion in the third quarter compared with $35.7 billion in the second.

^p Preliminary.

Exports increased $0.2 billion, or less than 1 percent, to $55.3 billion. Imports increased $2.2 billion, or 2 percent, to $93.0 billion.

Nonpetroleum imports increased $2.0 billion, or 3 percent, to $85.0 billion; volume increased 2 percent (chart 6). In response to dollar depreciation since the first quarter of 1985, price increases have appeared in some key import categories, such as automotive products, capital goods, and consumer goods. However, the increases have been limited, partly because some foreign exporters may have reduced profit margins to maintain their U.S. market shares and partly because the currencies of several important U.S. trading partners have remained virtually unchanged against the dollar. Also, import price increases have been restrained by worldwide weakness in primary commodity prices.

The largest increase in value in nonpetroleum imports in the third quarter was in passenger cars from areas other than Canada. These imports increased $1.6 billion, mostly due to a 15-percent increase in the number of units from Japan and a 79-percent increase in the number from Korea. The average price of Japanese cars increased 7 percent, and the average price of Korean cars decreased 2 percent. Imports of consumer goods increased $0.9 billion; prices and volume each increased 2 percent. Almost one-half the increase was in textiles. A $0.5 billion increase in capital goods was accounted for by a 2-percent increase in prices. The increase in value was concentrated in business machines from Japan. Foods, feeds, and beverages increased $0.1 billion, as a 6-percent increase in volume more than offset a 4-percent drop in prices, mainly in coffee. An $0.8 billion decrease in imports of nonpetroleum industrial supplies and materials was more than accounted for by nonmonetary gold; an increase in paper and paper base stocks from Canada was partly offsetting. Prices of nonpetroleum industrial supplies and materials imports, which had decreased in each of the last eight quarters because of falling prices of primary commodities, were unchanged.

Petroleum imports increased $0.2 billion, or 2 percent, to $8.0 billion. The increase, most of which went into inventories, was more than accounted for by an increase in volume; the average number of barrels imported daily increased to 7.67 million from 6.52 million. The average price per barrel decreased 13 percent—to $11.42 from $13.17—following 18-percent and 39-percent decreases in the first and second quarters, respectively. Following agreement by OPEC members to new temporary production controls, the decline in prices began to slow in August; prices increased slightly in September.

Nonagricultural exports were nearly unchanged at $48.8 billion; volume increased 1 percent. Increases in exports of capital goods and consumer goods were offset by decreases in nonagricultural industrial supplies and materials and in automotive products. Capital goods increased $1.0 billion: Completed aircraft increased $0.9 billion, computers $0.3 billion, and scientific and professional equipment $0.1 billion; construction machinery decreased $0.3 billion, reflecting the continuing worldwide slowdown in oil well drilling activity. Consumer goods increased $0.2 billion. Industrial supplies and materials decreased $1.1 billion. Exports of non-monetary gold decreased $1.5 billion, following an equal increase in the second quarter due to purchases by Japan for the minting of commemorative coins, and energy products decreased $0.2 billion, reflecting the drop in petroleum prices; exports of chemicals increased $0.2 billion. A $0.4 billion decrease in automotive products was mostly in exports to Canada.

Agricultural exports increased $0.3 billion, or 5 percent, to $6.5 billion; volume increased 14 percent. Prices of all major export commodities decreased: Cotton, 26 percent; rice, 25 percent; wheat and corn, 17 percent each; and soybeans, 3 percent. The lower prices partly reflect the impact of the Food Security Act of 1985, which lowered price supports beginning in the 1986 crop year, as well as abundant world supplies. The largest increases in value were in wheat, $0.3 billion; cotton, $0.2 billion; and rice and corn, $0.1 billion each. Soybean exports decreased $0.4 billion, mainly to Western Europe and to the Soviet Union; the decrease partly reflected improved production of corn—a close substitute for soybeans when used as livestock feed—in the Soviet Union.

By area, the trade deficit with Western Europe decreased $1.0 billion to $7.0 billion. Imports decreased $0.7 billion, mainly in nonmonetary gold. Exports increased $0.3 billion, although agricultural exports to that area continued to decline. The deficit with Canada decreased slightly to $4.1 billion. Exports and imports both decreased. With Latin America, a substantial increase in exports and a decrease in imports reduced the deficit $1.0 billion to $1.6 billion. The deficit with Japan increased $1.7 billion to $14.1 billion. Imports, mainly automobiles and business machines, increased $1.0 billion. Nonagricultural exports decreased $0.6 billion, and agricultural exports were nearly unchanged. A $2.5 billion increase to $10.9 billion in the deficit with other countries was largely accounted for by an increase in imports from the newly industrialized countries in Asia; an increase in nonagricultural exports to those countries was partly offsetting.

Service transactions

Net service receipts increased $0.2 billion to $5.6 billion in the third quarter.

Receipts of income on U.S. direct investment abroad decreased $0.2 billion to $9.6 billion. Earnings before capital gains and losses decreased $0.3 billion. A $0.4 billion decrease in earnings of petroleum affiliates was about one-half as large as in the second quarter, because of the slower decline of crude petroleum prices. Earnings of nonpetroleum affiliates increased $0.1 billion. Capital gains were virtually unchanged at $2.2 billion.

Payments of income on foreign direct investment in the United States decreased $0.3 billion to $1.8 billion. Earnings before capital gains and losses decreased $0.7 billion. The decrease was largely in earnings of petroleum affiliates and of automotive affiliates of Japanese companies. A $0.4 billion shift to capital gains of $0.2 billion occurred mainly among petroleum affiliates.

Declining interest rates led to decreases of $0.6 billion, to $10.9 billion, in receipts of other private income and of $0.2 billion, to $9.4 billion, in payments. Part of the impact of declining interest rates on payments was offset by recent large increases in foreign holdings of U.S. securities and in bank liabilities to foreigners.

Receipts of income on U.S. Government assets increased $0.6 billion to $2.0 billion. Most of the increase was related to provisions of the second Polish Debt Rescheduling Agreement; the agreement, which covered obligations maturing January 1, 1982 to December 31, 1984, entered into force September 8. (Related transactions appear in the U.S. Government credits and long-term assets, repayments, and short-term assets accounts.) Payments of income on U.S. Government liabilities increased $0.1 billion to $5.7 billion, as increased foreign holdings of U.S. Treasury securities more than offset the impact of declining interest rates.

Net travel and passenger fare payments decreased $0.1 billion to $1.9 billion. Travel receipts were $3.3 billion, up $0.2 billion, mainly from Western Europe and the Far East. Travel payments were unchanged at $4.4 billion. Payments for overseas travel were $2.6 billion, the same as in the second quarter, as increased foreign currency costs offset the decrease in the number of travelers. The number of U.S. residents traveling to Western Europe and the Mediterranean area continued to decline, but at a slower pace than in the second quarter. Passenger fare receipts were unchanged at $0.8 billion; payments increased $0.1 billion to $1.6 billion.

Other transportation receipts increased $0.2 billion to $3.7 billion, and payments increased $0.3 billion to $4.3 billion. A larger volume of imports contributed to both increases: Additional expenditures of foreign ship operators in U.S. ports boosted receipts, and additional freight charges boosted payments.

Transfers under military sales contracts were unchanged at $2.3 billion. An increase in deliveries of aircraft to the Middle East was offset by decreases in deliveries of missiles and technical services. Direct defense expenditures, at $3.0 billion, were also unchanged.

Net unilateral transfers increased $0.1 billion to $4.2 billion, reflecting an increase in U.S. Government grants. Grants to finance military purchases remained strong, as did outflows of funds from the Agency for International Development's economic support fund.

U.S. assets abroad

U.S. official reserve assets decreased $0.3 billion in the third quarter. Decreases in holdings of special drawing rights and in the U.S. reserve position in the International Monetary Fund were partly offset by a $0.4 billion increase in U.S. holdings of foreign currencies, largely Mexican pesos. The acquisition of pesos reflected U.S. participation in international support arrangements for Mexico.

Claims on foreigners reported by U.S. banks increased $20.5 billion in the third quarter compared with $14.4 billion in the second. The third-quarter increase was dominated by quarter-end interbank transactions (which were subsequently reversed in October). Otherwise, claims during the quarter increased little, with the exception of those on Japan and on several newly industrialized countries in Asia. In general, demand for bank credit outside the interbank market remained weak, as corporate borrowers continued to rely heavily on the securities market as a source of funds. Claims payable in foreign currencies increased $2.9 billion, and claims of banks' domestic customers increased $3.6 billion.

Net U.S. transactions in foreign securities shifted to net sales of $0.2 billion from net purchases of $1.7 billion. Transactions in foreign stocks shifted to net sales of $0.8 billion from net purchases of $2.1 billion, reflecting profit-taking by some investors and weakening stock prices in several leading markets. The largest shift was in Japanese stocks; net sales were $1.2 billion following net purchases of $0.2 billion. The shift to net sales of Japanese stocks occurred in May, and net sales continued in the third quarter. Similar shifts occurred in Canadian and British stocks. Rising interest rates in the United Kingdom and appreciation of the dollar against the pound probably also contributed to net sales of British stocks.

Transactions in foreign bonds shifted to net purchases of $0.6 billion from net sales of $0.5 billion. The shift was more than accounted for by a large step-up in net purchases of British bonds, especially gilt-edge bonds, due to sharply higher yields. New foreign bond issues in the United States, at $0.9 billion, were slightly higher than in the second quarter.

Net outflows for U.S. direct investment abroad were $7.7 billion compared with $8.1 billion. Net intercompany outflows increased $0.8 billion to $2.6 billion. A $2.4 billion shift to net outflows in transactions with petroleum affiliates, as U.S. parents reduced trade payables accumulated earlier this year, was partly offset by a $1.5 billion slowdown in outflows to other affiliates. The slowdown was largely due to a shift to net inflows from finance affiliates in the United Kingdom. Also, repayment of debt to Netherlands Antilles finance affiliates slowed (table D). Net equity capital inflows were $0.3 billion, down from $0.7 billion, reflecting a decrease in inflows from Canada following sales of two affiliates in the second quarter. Inflows from the United Kingdom increased: Equity in a British petroleum affiliate was reduced as an offset to a reduction in debt to the affiliate. Reinvested earnings were $5.4 billion compared with $7.0 billion.

Foreign assets in the United States

Foreign official assets in the United States increased $15.8 billion in the third quarter compared with $14.7 billion in the second (table B). Dollar assets of industrial countries increased $12.6 billion, reflecting substantial intervention purchases of dollars in exchange markets by foreign monetary authorities to limit appreciation of their currencies. Dollar assets of OPEC members decreased $2.8 billion. Dollar assets of other countries—mostly in Asia—increased $6.1 billion.

Liabilities to foreigners and international financial institutions reported by U.S. banks, excluding U.S. Treasury securities, increased $32.2 billion compared with $3.6 billion. The third-quarter increase was dominated (as was the case with bank claims) by interbank flows; inflows from Caribbean branches at quarter-end approximately matched the increase in U.S. claims on those branches. Large inflows through the same branches in August may have partly reflected the narrowing of U.S. and Eurodollar interest rates differentials, along with a strong demand by banks for funds to purchase municipal bonds. Less favorable tax treatment of such purchases takes effect next year. Liabilities payable in foreign currencies increased $5.1 billion, mainly to Japan and to the United Kingdom, and banks' custody liabilities increased $4.9 billion.

Net purchases of U.S. Treasury securities by private foreigners and international financial institutions declined to $0.6 billion from $3.8 billion. Large sales by international financial institutions more than offset net purchases by several countries, particularly Japan, where gross purchases picked up slightly and gross sales dropped sharply. In the United Kingdom, transactions shifted to net sales, perhaps related to a widening of interest differentials in favor of British bonds.

Net foreign purchases of U.S. securities other than U.S. Treasury securities were $17.1 billion compared with $23.0 billion. Net foreign purchases of U.S. stocks slowed to $4.5 billion from the second-quarter record of $7.0 billion. Net purchases by a number of countries were reduced. Exceptions were British and Canadian purchases, which increased slightly, and Japanese purchases, which increased to $1.4 billion from $0.9 billion. Net foreign purchases of U.S. bonds were $12.6 billion compared with $16.0 billion. New issues sold abroad by U.S. corporations remained strong at $10.3 billion, but were off $1.5 billion from the second quarter. New issues rose sharply in September, when U.S. interest rates rose relative to Eurobond rates.

Net inflows for foreign direct investment in the United States slowed to $3.4 billion from $4.1 billion. A $2.7 billion shift to net outflows of $1.2 billion in intercompany debt reflected a conversion of debt to equity of U.S. affiliates of parent companies in the United Kingdom, Sweden, and Canada and reductions in debt of a number of other U.S. affiliates to parents in other Western European countries. Equity inflows increased $2.2 billion to $4.2 billion, due to the above-mentioned conversions and to an increase in other equity inflows related to acquisitions. Reinvested earnings were $0.4 billion compared with $0.5 billion.

Reconciliation of United States-Canadian current-account statistics

Reconciliation of the 1985 bilateral current-account statistics of the United States and Canada and revision of the 1984 current-account reconciliation were completed in November 1986 (table E). Revisions in the U.S. international transactions data based on the reconciliations with Canada will be incorporated into the published data in June 1987 in so far as possible. Full substitution of the reconciled data for the previously published data is not possible because U.S. transactions with other areas would be affected.

Current-account reconciliations for the years 1970-83 appear in the June 1975, September 1976, September 1977, December 1979, June 1981, and December 1981-85 issues of the SURVEY OF CURRENT BUSINESS.

Footnotes to U.S. International Transactions Tables 1-10

General notes for all tables:

* Revised.

* Preliminary.

* Less than $500,000 (\pm).

n.a. Not available.

Table 1-2:

1. Credits, +: exports of goods and services; unilateral transfers to United States; capital inflows (increase in foreign assets (U.S. liabilities) or decrease in U.S. assets); decrease in U.S. official reserve assets; increase in foreign official assets in the United States.

Debits, -: imports of goods and services; unilateral transfers to foreigners; capital outflows (decrease in foreign assets (U.S. liabilities) or increase in U.S. assets); increase in U.S. official reserve assets; decrease in foreign official assets in the United States.

2. Excludes transfers of goods and services under U.S. military grant programs (see line 15).

3. Excludes exports of goods under U.S. military agency sales contracts identified in Census export documents, excludes imports of goods under direct defense expenditures identified in Census import documents, and reflects various other adjustments (for valuation, coverage, and timing) of Census statistics to balance of payments basis; see table 3.

4. Beginning in 1982, line 7 and line 22 are redefined to include only net receipts and payments for the use or sale intangible property rights, including patents, industrial processes, trademarks, copyrights, franchises, designs, know-how, formulas, techniques, and manufacturing and technical services, charges for use of tangible property, film and television tape rentals, and all other charges and fees are shown in line 9 and line 24. Data on the redefined basis are not separately available prior to 1982.

5. For all areas, amounts outstanding December 31, 1986, were as follows in millions of dollars: line 36, 48,086; line 37, 11,084; line 38, 3,295; line 39, 11,922; line 40, 16,785.

6. Includes sales of foreign obligations to foreigners.

7. Consists of bills, certificates, marketable bonds and notes, and nonmarketable convertible and nonconvertible bonds and notes.

8. Consists of U.S. Treasury and Export-Import Bank obligations, not included elsewhere, and of debt securities of U.S. Government corporations and agencies.

9. Includes, primarily, U.S. Government liabilities associated with military agency sales contracts and other transactions arranged with or through foreign official agencies; see table 4.

10. Consists of investments in U.S. corporate stocks and in debt securities of private corporations and State and local governments.

11. Conceptually, the sum of lines 69 and 64 is equal to "net foreign investment" in the national income and product accounts (NIPA's). However, the foreign transactions account in the NIPA's (a) includes adjustments to the international transactions accounts for the treatment of gold, (b) excludes capital gains and losses of foreign affiliates of U.S. parent companies from the NIPA measure of income receipts from direct investment abroad, and from the corresponding income payments, (c) includes an adjustment for the different geographical treatment of transactions with U.S. territories and Puerto Rico, and (d) includes an adjustment for services furnished without payment by financial intermediaries, except life insurance carriers and private noninsured pension plans. In addition, for NIPA purposes, U.S. Government interest payments to foreigners are excluded from "net exports of goods and services" but included with transfers in "net foreign investment." A reconciliation table of the international accounts and the NIPA foreign transactions account appears in the "Reconciliation and other Special Tables" section in this issue of the SURVEY OF CURRENT BUSINESS.

1. Exports, Census basis, represent transaction values, f.a.s. U.S. port of exportation; imports, Census basis, represent Customs values (see Technical Notes, June 1982 Survey). Both unadjusted and seasonally adjusted data have been prepared by BEA from "actual" and "revised statistical" month data supplied by the Census Bureau (see Technical Notes, December 1985 Survey). The seasonally adjusted data are the summation of seasonally adjusted 4-digit end-use commodity categories (see Technical Notes, June 1980 Survey).

2. Adjustments in lines A5 and A13, B12, B46, and B80 reflect the Census Bureau's reconciliation of discrepancies between the merchandise trade statistics published by the United States and the counterpart statistics published in Canada. These adjustments also have been distributed to the affected end-use categories in section C.

3. Exports of military equipment under U.S. military agency sales contracts with foreign governments (line A6), and direct imports by the Department of Defense and the Coast Guard (line A14), to the extent such trade is identifiable from Customs declarations. These exports are included in tables 1, 2, and 10, line 3 (transfers under U.S. military agency sales contracts); and the imports are included in tables 1, 2, and 10, line 18 (direct defense expenditures).

4. Addition of electrical energy; deduction of exposed motion picture film for rental rather than sale; net change in stock of U.S.-owned grains in storage in Canada; and coverage adjustments for special situations in which shipments were omitted from Census data.

5. Deduction of foreign charges for repair of U.S. vessels abroad, which are included in tables 1, 2, and 10, line 21 (other transportation); and coverage adjustments for special situations in which shipments were omitted from Census data.

6. Annual and unadjusted quarterly data shown in this table correspond to country and area data in table 10, lines 2 and 17. Trade with international organizations includes purchases of non-monetary gold from the IMF, transfers of tin to the International Tin Council (ITC), and sales of satellites to Intelsat. The memoranda are defined as follows: Industrial countries: Western Europe, Canada, Japan, and Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa; Members of OPEC: Venezuela, Ecuador, Iraq, Iran, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, United Arab Emirates, Indonesia, Algeria, Libya, Nigeria, Gabon; Other countries: Eastern Europe, Latin American Republics, other Western Hemisphere, and other countries in Asia and Africa, less OPEC. For all years, "Asia" and "Africa" exclude certain Pacific Islands and unidentified countries included in "Other countries in Asia and Africa."

7. Includes nuclear fuel materials and fuels.

Table 4:

1. Expenditures to release foreign governments from their contractual liabilities to pay for defense articles and services purchased through military sales contracts—first authorized (for Israel) under Public Law 93-199, section 4, and subsequently authorized (for many recipients) under similar legislation—are included in line A3. Deliveries against these military sales contracts are included in line C10; see footnote 2. Of the line A3 items, part of these military expenditures is applied in lines A40 and A49 to reduce short-term assets previously recorded in lines A38 and C8; this application of funds is excluded from lines C9 and C4. A second part of line A3 expenditures finances future deliveries under military sales contracts for the recipient countries and is applied directly to lines A39 and C9. A third part of line A3, disbursed directly to finance purchases by recipient countries from commercial suppliers in the United States, is included in line A34. A fourth part of line A3, representing dollars paid to the recipient countries to finance purchases from countries other than the United States, is included in line A45.

2. Transactions under military sales contracts are those in which the Department of Defense sells and transfers military goods and services to a foreign purchaser, on a cash or credit basis. Purchases by foreigners directly from commercial suppliers are not included as transactions under military sales contracts. The entries for the several categories of transactions related to military sales contracts in this and other tables are partly estimated from incomplete data.

3. The identification of transactions involving direct dollar outflows from the United States is made in reports by each operating agency.

4. Line A35 includes foreign currency collected as interest and line A40 includes foreign currency collected as principal, as recorded in lines A13 and A14, respectively.

5. Includes (a) advance payments to the Department of Defense (on military sales contracts) financed by loans extended to foreigners by U.S. Government agencies and (b) the contraentry for the part of lines C10 which was delivered without prepayment by the foreign purchaser. Also includes expenditures of appropriations available to release foreign purchasers from liability to make repayment.

6. Includes purchases of loans from U.S. banks and exporters and payments by the U.S. Government under commercial export credit and investment guarantee programs.

7. Excludes liabilities associated with military sales contracts financed by U.S. Government grants and credits and included in line C2.

Table 5:

1. Also included in line 4.

2. Acquisition of equity holdings in existing and newly established companies, capital contributions, capitalization of intercompany accounts, and other equity contributions.

3. Sales, liquidations, and other dispositions of equity holdings, total and partial.

Manufacturing excludes petroleum refining. "Other" industries includes mining; trade; banking; finance (except banking), insurance, and real estate; agriculture, forestry, and fishing; construction, transportation, communications, and public utilities; and services.

4. Issues through finance affiliates established primarily to borrow capital from abroad. Issues are almost always guaranteed by the establishing U.S. parent and are often convertible into the parents' securities. To the extent proceeds are transferred from offshore affiliates to U.S. parents—the common practice—they are recorded as direct investment transactions in table 5, line 8.

15. Details not shown separately; see totals in lines 51 and 58.

16. Details not shown separately are included in line 63.

Constant-Dollar Inventories, Sales, and Inventory-Sales Ratios for Manufacturing and Trade

Tables 1, 2, and 3 present quarterly and monthly constant-dollar inventories, sales, and inventory-sales ratios, respectively. Table 4 presents quarterly fixed-weighted constant-dollar inventory-sales ratios, i.e., ratios obtained by weighting detailed industry ratios by 1982 sales. Table 5 presents quarterly and monthly inventories for manufacturing by stage of fabrication. Quarterly constant-dollar manufacturing and trade inventories, sales, and inventory-sales ratios for 1983 forward were published in the September 1986 SURVEY. Quarterly and monthly constant-dollar manufacturing and trade inventories, sales, and inventory-sales ratios for 1967-85, and constant-dollar manufacturing inventories by stage of fabrication for 1959-85, are available in hard copy at a cost of $50.00 from the National Income and Wealth Division (BE-54), Bureau of Economic Analysis, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20230.
